

May 12, 2015

6 Must-See New York Gallery Shows During Frieze New York

By Cait Munro

Haluk Akakçe at Richard Taittinger Gallery

For his first major US exhibition in over a decade, pioneering video artist Haluk Akakçe is treating visitors to a peek into his creative process. The immersive opening will take place during the artist's typical working hours. Featuring paintings, drawings, sculptures, a large-scale video installation, and an immersive soundscape, this show might be worth staying up late for this Saturday.

Haluk Akakçe, "Come Midnight" at Richard Taittinger Gallery opens on May 16 at 12 a.m. and runs until May 17 at 8 a.m.