Picto and Magnum Photos: 70 Years of Correspondences 1950-2020

29 October - 20 December. Richard Taittinger Gallery. New York

Celebrating the 70th anniversary of the legendary lab Pictorial Service, aka PICTO, this exhibition is a tribute to the historic relationship between Magnum Photos and Picto (which now has a New York presence) that started in the 1930s in Paris with the friendship between Magnum founders Henri Cartier-Bresson, Robert Capa, Chim (David Seymour) and George Rodger, and Picto's founder Pierre Gassmann. Curated by photography historian Carole Naggar, this show includes the work of 19 Magnum photographers — including Raymond Depardon, Antoine d'Agata, Josef Koudelka, Martine Franck, and Patrick Zachmann — and over 100 vintage and modern prints, bringing together Magnum's past and present generations.

Nb. Appointments are suggested to visit this exhibition. To make an appointment, please visit the gallery's website.
