TIMOTHY GOODMAN is an award-winning artist, muralist, author and public speaker. His art and words have populated walls, packaging, clothes, products, books, magazine covers and one sanitation truck for organizations such as Apple, Nike, Google, MoMa, Yves Saint Laurent, Samsung, Netflix, Time, the New Yorker, and the New York Times. Likewise, he has created over 250 murals all over the world for communities and brands, including a 5,500 basketball court for the students at PS 315 in Brooklyn. He regularly partners with not-for-profit organizations and schools to create murals for communities in New York City.

His partnerships have included a global collection of clothing with Uniqlo that sold 1 million units in 6 months, and his own Nike basketball shoe for Kevin Durant titled the "Timothy Goodman KD15" that sold out on Nike.com. He's the author of three books, and the co-creator of several social experiments including the viral blog and book 40 Days of Dating (whose TV rights were optioned to Netflix). His graphic memoir I Always Think It's Forever was published in January 2023 by Simon & Schuster.

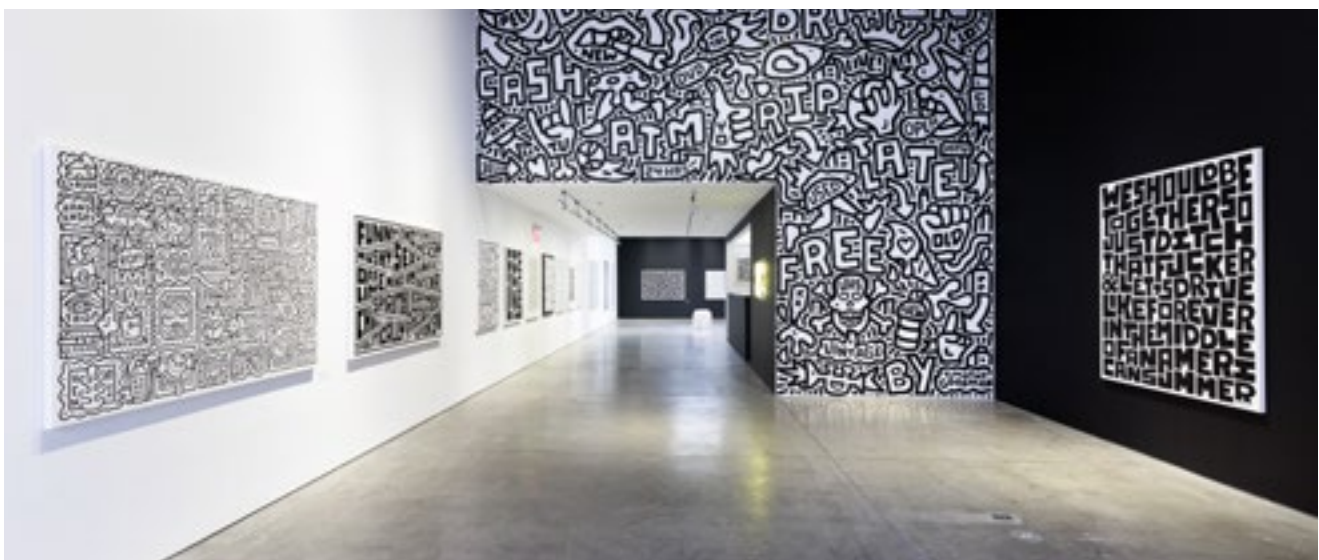

Timothy Goodman had his first solo gallery exhibition I'm Too Young To Not Set My Life On Fire at Richard Taittinger Gallery in 2021. Timothy's work often discusses topics such as mental health, manhood, race, politics, heartbreak and love. He teaches at School of Visual Arts in NYC, and regularly speaks around the world at creative conferences.

RICHARD TAITTINGER GALLERY is thrilled to present Every Time I Fall In Love It's Summer, the second solo New York exhibition by TIMOTHY GOODMAN (b. 1982). Following the success of his NYC 2021 show. This exhibition focuses on Goodman's emotional affinity for summertime that includes childhood nostalgia, past heartbreaks, and New York City as a grounds for healing. Timothy communicates these concepts through text based graphic art accented with figures and bold compositions that bring the viewer into Timothy's own fantastical New York City as well as into his own lived experiences as a hopeless romantic. We asked Timothy to share his insights and thoughts on his second solo exhibition at Richard Taittinger Gallery:

"Every time I fall in love it's summer. And every summer I fall in love with roller coasters, fire hydrants, and 90s hip hop with the windows down. I fall in love with tattoo sleeves, the NBA Finals, and MTV. I fall in love with the memory of my grandmother sharing her childhood memories with me. I fall in love with Paris, New York City and cutoff jeans. I fall in love with love, with the joy and the regrets, with the heartbreaks and the time spent together that I'd never take back. I fall in love with creating art on the streets, I can see the faces of the people that walk past me in the hot summer heat.

I've been privileged to contribute to the landscape of NYC and to many communities with my artwork throughout the years. I don't take that for granted. So whether I'm drawing on a basketball court for kids in Brooklyn, spray painting a sanitation truck for the city of NYC, creating a mural about the history of Jazz in New Orleans, launching a global collection of clothing with Uniqlo, or publishing my graphic memoir about my year in Paris, my work is editorial. I want to chronicle it all—the ups, the downs, love found, and love lost—in the only way I know how: with lettering, poems, and imagery that creates a timecapsule of a life lived.

A friend recently said to me, "Don't seek where you want to be, seek the truth of where you are." This show is an extension of where I've been, where I am, and of all the summers I've spent falling in love over and over again." - Timothy Goodman

The Dinner Party, 1979
The Dinner Party is a large-scale artwork by Judy Chicago, created in 1979. It is a feminist work of art that commemorates the lives of 39 women who were instrumental in the development of the women's movement in the United States. The artwork is a large-scale, multi-media piece that consists of a table with 39 place settings, each representing a different woman. The place settings are made of ceramic and are decorated with intricate, hand-drawn designs. The designs are a mix of abstract and representational, often incorporating symbols and motifs that are associated with the women's lives and work. The artwork is displayed in a gallery space, and it is one of the most famous and controversial pieces of contemporary art.

SHE ACCIDENTALLY SAID "I LOVE YOU" 4 MONTHS AFTER WE STARTED DATING WHILE WALKING ON 38th AVENUE IN LATE SUMMER AS IT STARTED GETTING COLDER OUTSIDE, BUT I ALREADY KNEW I LOVED HER 2 MONTHS BEFORE THAT WHEN I MADE A JOKE ABOUT THE 'BABY IT'S COLD OUTSIDE' SONG AND SHE STARTED DYING LAUGHING, SO I JUST WANTED TO DIE WHEN I FOUND OUT HOW QUICKLY SHE FOUND A NEW GUY, MY ATTACHMENT ISSUES FOUND ME GRASPING FOR THE TIMES I COULD HAVE HANDLED THINGS BETTER, BACK WHEN WE WERE MORE THAN JUST OUR HANDLES, AND I COULDN'T GET A GRIP ON ANYTHING SO I FLEW OFF THE HANDLES IN A DEPRESSIVE STATE, I USED EVERY THING I COULD TO NUMB ALL THE PAIN, MY THERAPIST TEXTED ME "HEY YOU'RE NOT TO BLAME, IT WILL ALL GO AWAY" BUT FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH IT'S SUMMER AGAIN WHICH IS JUST 6 SUMMERS FROM WHEN THAT "I LOVE YOU" WAS FIRST SAID.

SOMETIMES LOVE IS APOLOGIZING FOR HURTING THEM IN THEIR DREAM. SOMETIMES LOVE IS A DREAM THAT TURNS YOU INTO AN ANNOYING PERSON ON THE INTERNET. BUT I LOVE HER MORE THAN A SPACE-SHIP, MORE THAN THE INTERNET, MORE THAN MY FAVORITE FIT. I LOVE HER MORE THAN PICASSO, MORE THAN FRESH MOZZARELLA MADE IN ROME. I LOVE HER MORE THAN A COOL PARISIAN LIGHTING A CIGARETTE ON THEIR WAY HOME. I LOVE ALL HER SCARY PARTS, LIKE HER FARTS & SNORTS & EVERY THING THAT MAKES HER HURT. I CAN FEEL HER HEART, HER TOUCH, HER TEXTS, HER BREATH, THE WAY SHE MOANS WHEN I KISS HER NECK. PRIVATE PARTS, I PLAY MY PART, I'M SO CONFIDENT IN MY ABILITY TO LOVE HER 24 HOURS A DAY LIKE AN ACTOR WHO WENT METHOD JUST TO NAIL THEIR PART. MAYBE I CARE TOO MUCH, BUT I DON'T GIVE A FUCK. ANALYZE MY HEART, AND WHAT WILL YOU SEE? I LOVE MY BABY, AND MY BABY LOVES ME.

SHE SAID, "DO YOU THINK TWO PEOPLE HAVE EVER BEEN SO IN LOVE BEFORE?" MY HEART MELTED TO THE FLOOR. THIS IS HOW I ENVISIONED REAL LOVE SINCE MY FIRST JOB AS A TEENAGER SWEEPING UP DIRTY FLOORS. AFTER ALL THE DIRT, THE BUSTS, THE DISAPPOINTMENTS, THE MISTAKES, THE OUTTAKES, THE RETAKES, THE HEARTACHES, I LIE WIDE AWAKE FEELING SO LUCKY THAT I MET HER ONE SPRING DAY. SUMMER CASHES IN ON A SPRING ROMANCE AND RIPE FRUIT DOESN'T LAST. SO THOSE LOVERS OF OUR PAST WERE SUPPOSED TO BE THERE, AND THEY WERE SUPPOSED TO PASS. AND EVEN THO I'VE HAD SO MANY LOVES, EVEN THO MY LOVE FOR THEM FELT REAL AT THE TIME, I KNOW I'M IN LOVE FOR THE VERY FIRST TIME. CORNY ASS LOVE IS REAL AS FUCK, AND EVEN WHEN WE FUCK WE MAKE LOVE. MY WORDS ARE PATHETIC IN THEIR ABILITY TO DESCRIBE HOW PATHETICALLY IN LOVE I AM. SHE'S MY FANTASY, MY DREAM, THE HEART OF MY BEING, SHE'S EVERYTHING I WANT IN REALITY.
